WELCOME

We gather this morning from all parts of this great city, connected by a common love for Jesus Christ and a contagious joy that we have discovered in him.

“His mercies are new every morning” says the Scripture. So, we meet in this holy, happy place with the expectation of finding “grace to help.”

We are glad that you have joined us today! We call it “fellowship around God’s Word” and our prayer is that you will experience for yourself the encouragement of the Lord and His people.

The card below is intended for use by our guests. We are grateful for an opportunity to get to know you.

“Let the world hear His voice.” God bless you.

“Only the man who follows the command of Christ single-mindedly... finds His burden easy... The command of Christ is hard, unutterably hard, for those who try to resist it. But for those who willingly submit, the yoke is easy, and the burden is light.” --Dietrich Bonhoeffer

HE IS RISEN! It is the end of God’s first story, the beginning of all that will be. Promised for centuries, Christ came and lived and served. Crucified by evil men, and for their evil, He was raised by the power of God to new life and reigns now as the only worthy focus of our love and energy. Welcome to worship today at FBCSA. It is a privilege to serve Him here in this city with you.

Resurrection Sunday

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH SAN ANTONIO

Preparation for Worship "Christ ist Erstanden" arr. Martin

Christ the Lord is risen again! Christ has broken every chain! Now through all the world it rings that the Lamb is King of Kings. Alleluia!

He who bore all pain and loss comfortless upon the cross is exalted now to save, wrestling victory from the grave. Alleluia!

HIS NAME

Scripture Reading John 20:1-9 John Slimp

Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came early to the tomb, while it was still dark, and saw the stone already taken away from the tomb. So she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him. "So Peter and the other disciple went forth, and they were going to the tomb. The two were running together; and the other disciple ran ahead faster than Peter and came to the tomb first; and stooping and looking in, he saw the linen wrappings lying there; but he did not go in. And so Simon Peter also came, following him, and entered the tomb; and he saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the face-cloth which had been on His head, not lying with the linen wrappings, but rolled up in a place by itself. So the other disciple who had first come to the tomb then also entered, and he saw and believed. For as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead.

Morning Worship telecast live on KSAT-TV "Touching lives through television for over forty years." Song lyrics are reprinted by permission CCLI #631849.

Historians are fairly convinced of the rare nature of true Awakenings. There have been many Revival events recorded in history, but Awakenings are something human beings do not plan, have a unique history, and a specialized definition. This is the work of God.

Join us as Dr. Karen Bullock will cover the Awakenings since the 16th century forward, including the German Awakening under Spener and Francke, Count Nicholas Ludwig von Zinzendorf and the Pietists; the English Awakening, called the Great Evangelical Awakening, under the Wesleys and Whitefield; and the First Great Awakening in America, under Frelinghuysen, Tennet, Edwards, and Whitefield. She will also touch upon what has happened in the majority of the world in the 20th century, especially in China.
